

NEW YORK, SUNDAY, AUGUST 2, 1903.—

[COPYRIGHT, 1903,
BY THE NEW YORK HERALD COMPANY.]

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

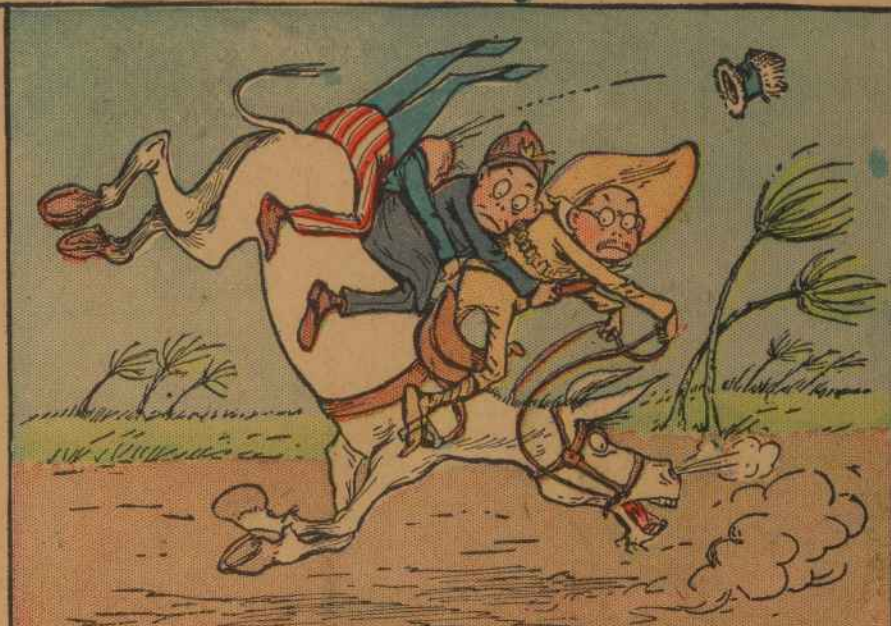

THE BROWNIES IN THE PHILIPPINES By Palmer Cox.

1 While Brownies Albay's highway lined
A cyclone struck them from behind.

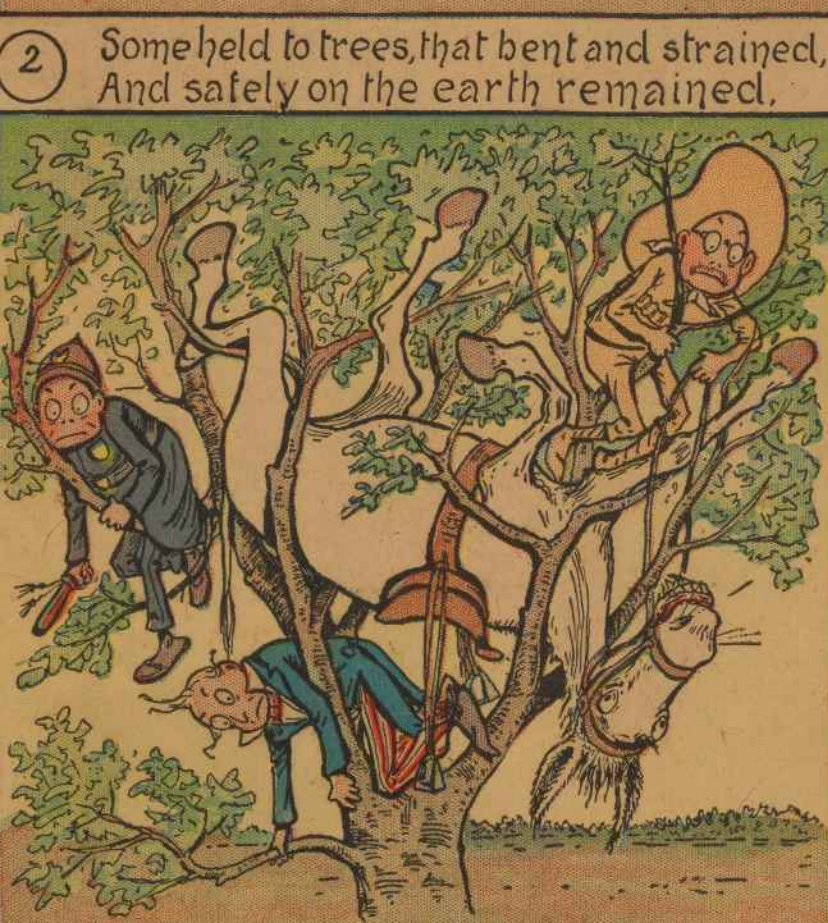

2 Some held to trees, that bent and strained,
And safely on the earth remained.

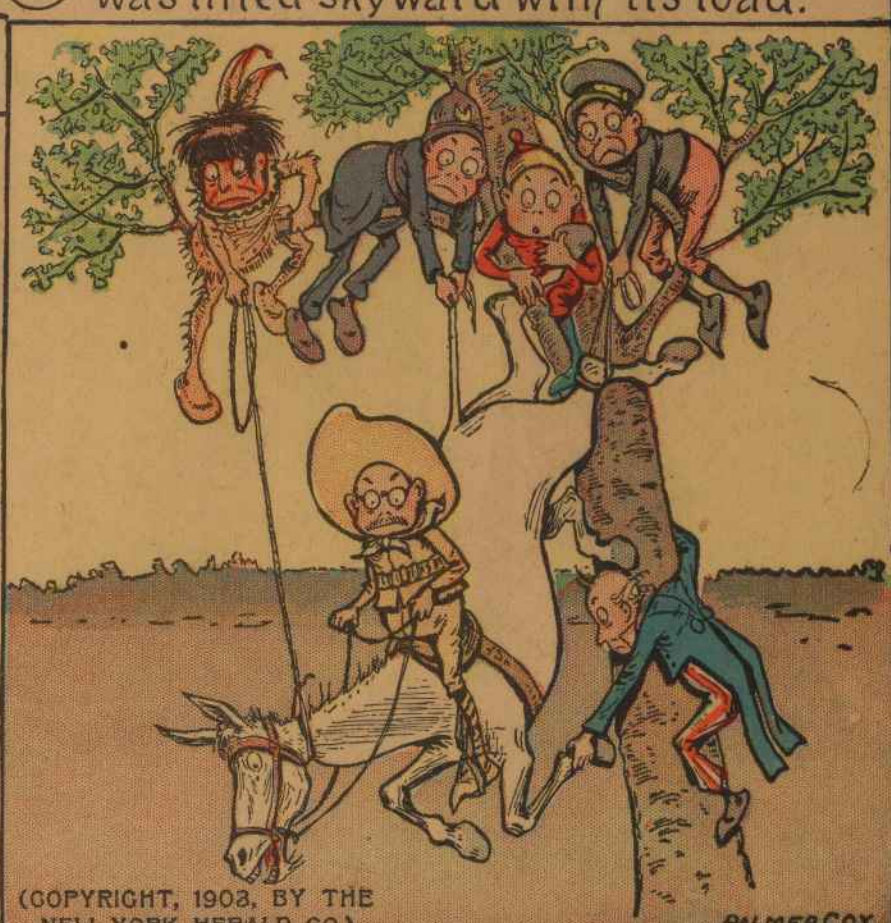

3 A beast, that other Brownies rode,
Was lifted skyward with its load.

4 Revolving through the air it passed,
With daring Brownies clinging fast.

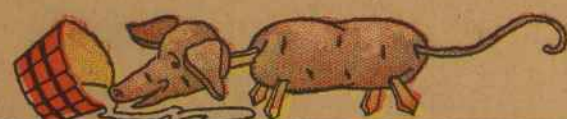

5 Until arrested in its flight
By branches strong that held it tight.

6 And Brownies worked for hours at least
To disengage the wretched beast.

(COPYRIGHT, 1903, BY THE
NEW YORK HERALD CO.)

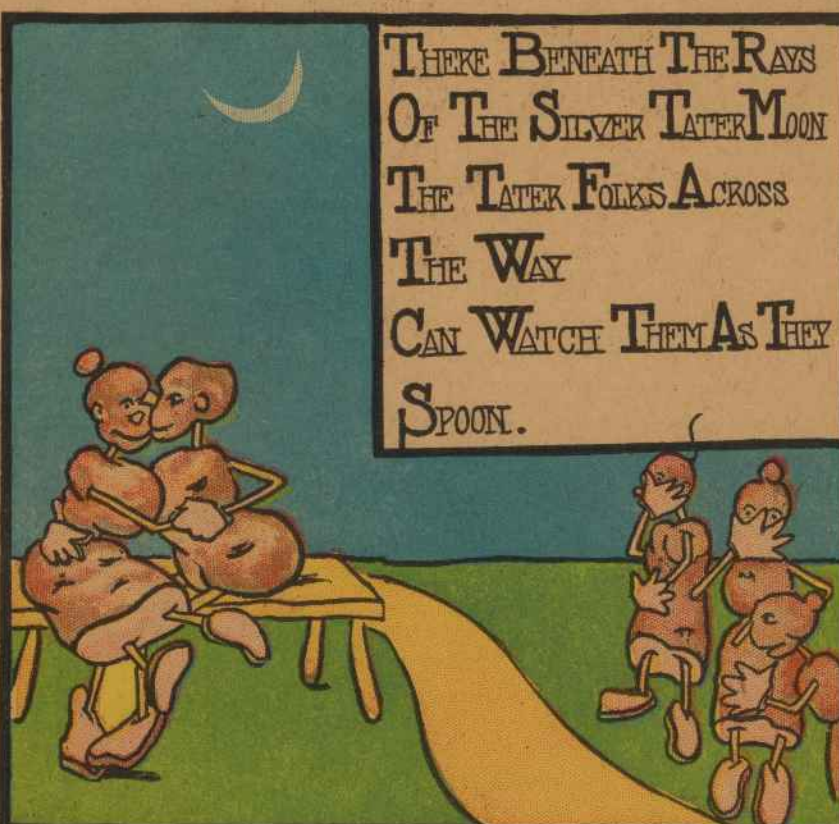

PALMER COX

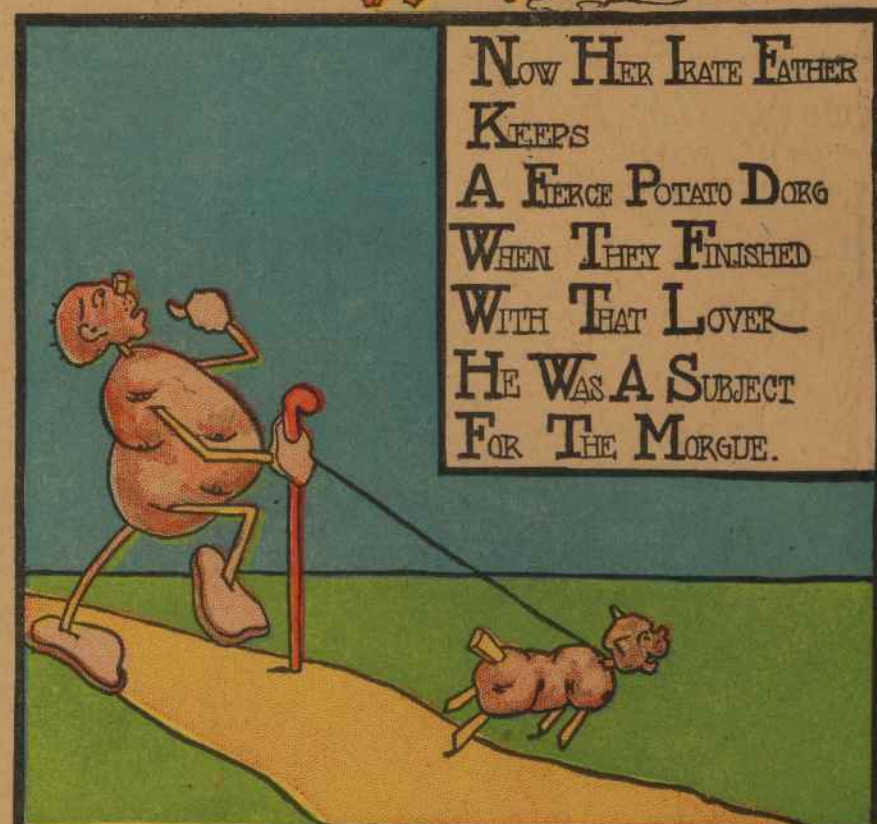

SMALL POTATOES.

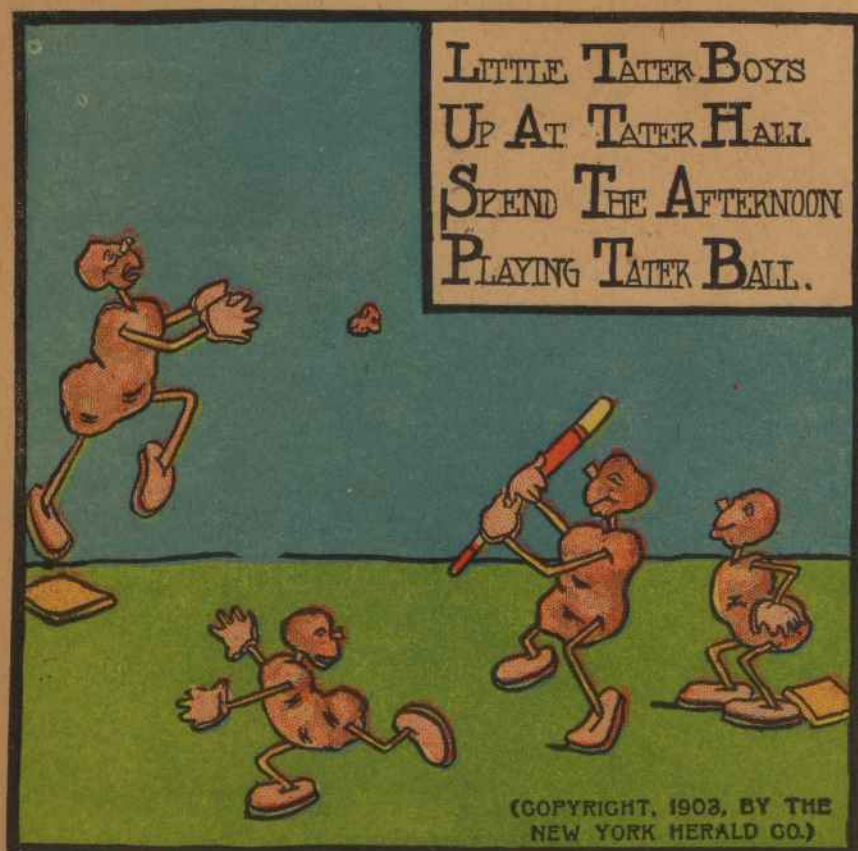

LITTLE MISS SWEET TATER
SO ALL THE TATERS SAY
EVERY EVENING WITH HER SWEETHEART
ENJOYS A TATER TAY.

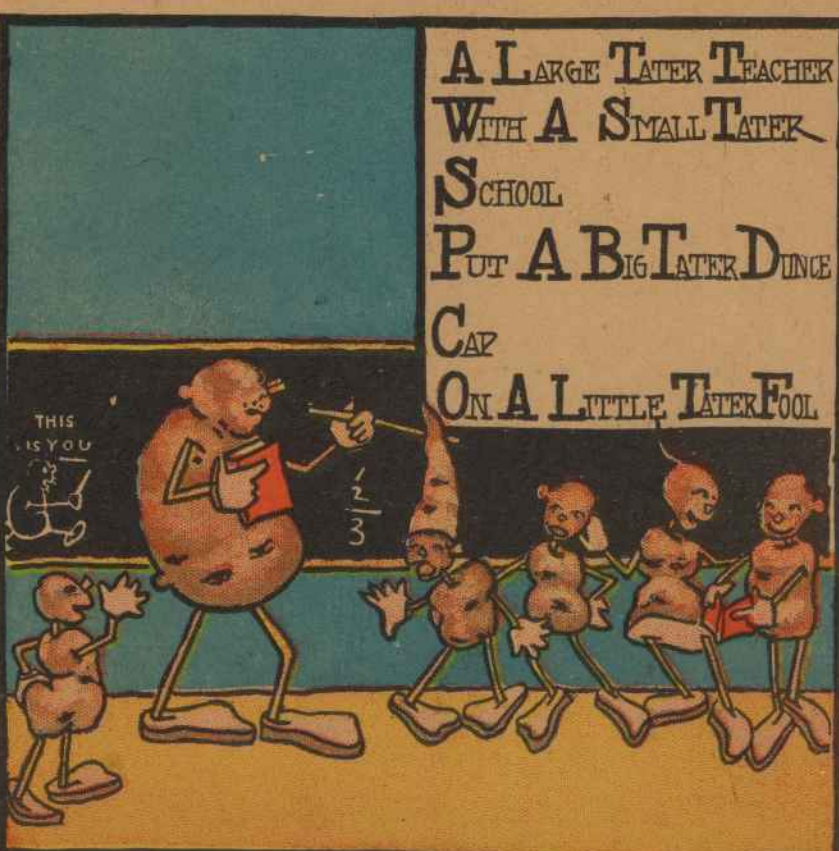

THERE BENEATH THE RAYS
OF THE SILVER TATER MOON
THE TATER FOLKS ACROSS
THE WAY
CAN WATCH THEM AS THEY SPOON.

NOW HER LATE FATHER
KEEPS
A FERCE POTATO DOG
WHEN THEY FINISHED
WITH THAT LOVER
HE WAS A SUBJECT
FOR THE MORGUE.

LITTLE TATER BOYS
UP AT TATER HALL
SPEND THE AFTERNOON
PLAYING TATER BALL.

A LARGE TATER TEACHER
WITH A SMALL TATER
SCHOOL
PUT A BIG TATER DUNCE
CAP
ON A LITTLE TATER FOOL.

BLOODED TATER HORSE
AT THE TATER SHOW
HIS PENKREE AS LONG AS ANY TATER ROW.

(COPYRIGHT, 1903, BY THE
NEW YORK HERALD CO.)